A RUSH TO SUGAR TOWN

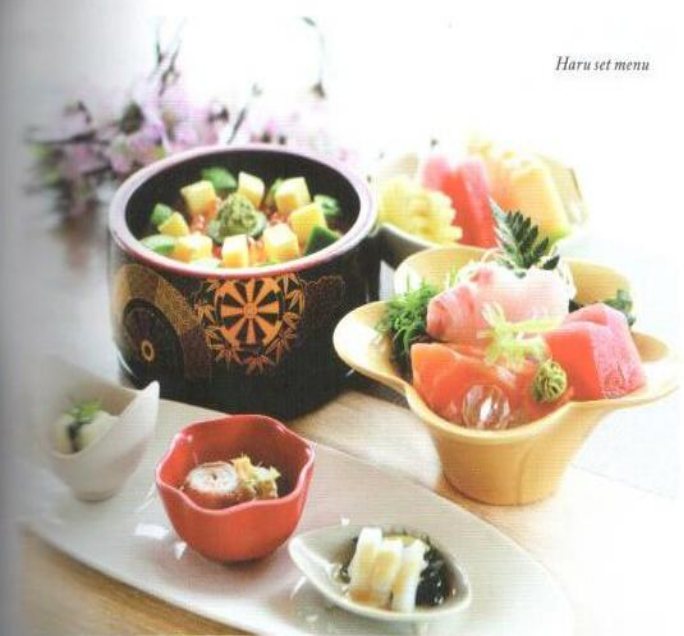

Two great dining destinations from two cities are about to collaborate and ignite the best kind of rush: a sugar rush. Cuca, a delightful culinary gem in Jimbaran, Bali, is about to take Jakarta by storm with an exciting dessert pop-up at Basque, a trendy tapas bar boasting Spanish-inspired dishes and drinks.

Simply named Sugar Rush, the event will be held for three days from 12th to 14th April, from 6PM to 11PM. The brilliantly talented Chef Kevin Cherkas from Cuca is ready to bring his out-of-the-box cooking techniques, using 100 percent premium natural products locally sourced from all over Indonesia.

Sweet teeth can look forward to Cuca's famed Bali Breakfast, a dessert that looks like poached egg but doesn't contain egg at all. For a twist on a classic Italian dessert, Kevin will bring his take on tiramisu, Tea-ramisu, in which he substitutes the coffee with black tea, and cocoa with white chocolate. ☞

JAPANESE SPRING IN BALI

Shiki Japanese restaurant at Hilton Bali Resort is inspired by the four seasons of Japan, which are reflected in talented Chef Goda Masumi's exquisite creations. Each dining experience comes with a special touch, including the lunch, dinner and the one-of-a-kind Japanese brunch on the island.

This April, the charming Japanese restaurant welcomes spring by offering the Haru set menu prepared by Chef Goda. The Haru package – which literally means spring in Japanese – allows diners to savour a special set menu comprising a Chirashi sushi bowl with Japanese premium sushi rice, topped with fresh cuts of salmon and avocado.

The set menu doesn't stop there as Haru also comes with tempting appetisers and desserts, including Chinese cabbage beef roll, deep-fried tofu and squid with vinegar bean paste, an array of sashimi on ice, a bowl of warm miso soup and seasonal sliced fruits. The offer is available for lunch and dinner throughout April. ☞
